Stamp Duty Land Tax (SDLT in UK) or Land Transaction Tax (Land Tax in Wales) (on purchase)

This depends on the purchase price of your property. You can calculate the amount you will need to pay by using HMRC's website:

www.tax.service.gov.uk/calculate-stamp-duty-land-tax or if the property is located in Wales by using the Welsh Revenue Authority's website beta.gov.wales/land-transaction-tax-calculator.

*Our fees assume that:

- a. It is a standard transaction and that no unforeseen matters arise including for example (but not limited to) a defect in title which requires remedying prior to completion or the preparation of additional documents ancillary to the main transaction.
- b. the transaction is concluded in a timely manner and no unforeseen complication arise.
- c. all parties to the transaction are co-operative and there is no unreasonable delay from third parties providing documentation.
- d. no indemnity policies are required. Additional disbursements may apply if indemnity policies are required.

How long will my house purchase/sale take?

How long it will take from your offer being accepted until you can move in to your house will depend on a number of factors. The average process takes 12 weeks to reach completion. It can be quicker or slower, depending on the parties in the chain. For example, if you are a first-time buyer, purchasing a new build property with a mortgage in principle, it could take 8 weeks. It could be considerably longer if construction of the property has only begun recently. However, if you are buying a leasehold property that requires an extension of the lease, this can take significantly longer, between 3 and 4 months. In such, a situation additional charges would apply.

How long will my Re-Mortgage take?

This depends upon a number of factors, including your lender and their requirements. A freehold re-mortgage would take between 4 to 6 weeks to complete. If the property is leasehold, information is required from the landlord and management company, which could add weeks if not longer to the process.
